An ISO and NIRF Coordinator Cell in a college is a specialized unit or committee responsible for coordinating activities related to obtaining and maintaining ISO certification and participating in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) assessment. Here's an overview of its functions and activities:

ISO Certification Management:

The cell oversees the process of obtaining and maintaining ISO certification for the college. This involves coordinating with external certification bodies, ensuring compliance with ISO standards (such as ISO 9001 for quality management), and facilitating internal audits and reviews to assess adherence to ISO requirements.

Documentation and Compliance:

It manages documentation related to ISO certification, including quality manuals, procedures, work instructions, and records. The cell ensures that all processes and procedures are documented, updated, and followed consistently to meet ISO standards.

Training and Awareness:

The cell conducts training programs and awareness sessions to educate staff, faculty, and students about ISO standards, quality management principles, and their roles in maintaining quality and continuous improvement within the college.

Internal Audits:

The cell organizes internal audits to assess the effectiveness of quality management systems and identify areas for improvement. It ensures that audit findings are addressed promptly, corrective actions are implemented, and lessons learned are incorporated into ongoing improvement efforts.

NIRF Ranking Coordination:

The cell serves as the focal point for coordinating activities related to participating in the NIRF ranking assessment. This includes collecting and collating data required for NIRF parameters such as Teaching, Learning & Resources (TLR), Research and Professional Practice (RP), Graduation Outcomes (GO), and Outreach and Inclusivity (OI).

As per the AICTE guideline the Measure for Cybersecurity Cell Following members are constituted for the academic year 2024-25. All committee members are hereby requested to adhere to norms of State or Central Government.
